

Mr. and Miss Public Service

Revised 07/2017

Purpose: This event will allow the student to showcase their involvement in their community and in the FPSA.

Description of event: The event will consist of a portfolio and an interview.

Limit: One male and one female student per chapter. This event is open only to seniors.

Dress Code: Appropriate dress to include; business attire, chapter uniform or other attire appropriate for the competition, or as directed by your chapter advisor.

Rules:

Portfolio will be turned in at the designated time before the first general session on the opening night of competition. Contestants will select an interview time after turning in their portfolio.

1. To be eligible for the competition a student must be enrolled in a secondary public service education program or a program completer as recognized by Florida Department of Education.
2. Mr. and Miss Public Service contest will be divided into two sessions: (1) portfolio and (2) interview.
3. A contestant who fails to turn in a portfolio before the start of the first general session will be disqualified. Note: The contestant can appeal to the State Director and if appeal granted the contestant will be allowed to submit their portfolio. The State Director will determine if up to 5 points be subtracted from final score.
4. Failing to report on time for the interview phase can result in DISQUALIFICATION. If there is a conflict the student will need to have a message sent to the chairman of the interview team explaining why they are late, for example, previous competition running late.
5. Each portfolio will contain:
 - a. A resume that is clear and concise with emphasis on why you desire to be named Mr. or Miss Public Service
 - b. Correct grammar, punctuation, spelling and acceptable business style
 - c. Maximum of ten pages (not including the cover page) including photos, resume, and letters of support
 - d. Evidence of multi-year participation in FPSA
 - e. Evidence of community and or school service
 - f. Demonstration of outstanding achievements

Florida Public Service Association, Inc.

Interview Phase:

The second phase of the contest is an interview. The interview will focus on why the applicant should be Mr. or Miss Public Service. The interview score and the portfolio scores will be added to give a score equal to 100 points. In case of a tie after the interviews, a predetermined question selected by the scoring judges will be used as a tie breaker.

Judging:

Portfolios will be judged prior to interview time. One judge will judge ALL portfolios. If there are too many contestants (more than 12), one judge will grade all female portfolios and one judge will grade all male portfolios.
